Board Nomination Form - 2020

The Montana Pharmacy Association invites you to nominate willing individuals who are members in good standing to seek election to the Board of Directors. You may nominate yourself. In 2020 we will be electing two pharmacists and one pharmacy technician. Nominations must be received in the MPA office by Friday, March 6, 2020.

Once the nominations are received, the nominees will be asked for a biographical summary to be included with the mail ballots sent to all eligible voting members. Voting ballots must be returned to the MPA office by Wednesday, May 6, 2020.

Election results will be announced, and the three new board members will be seated at the MPA Annual Business Meeting held in conjunction with the Northwest Pharmacy Convention, May 29 – May 31, 2020 in Coeur d'Alene. Idaho.

MPA By-Law Articles Guiding Election of Board Members

Method of Election

The elected members of the Board of Directors as defined in Article II of this Chapter shall be elected by popular vote of all the members of the Association. This election shall be administrated via a mailed secret ballot as defined by the Board of Directors. The terms shall be staggered so as that only 2 of the elected voting members of the Board as defined in Chapter 2, Article II, (a) are replaced each year.

Terms of Office

The two pharmacist members shall serve four-year terms and may be re-elected for one additional consecutive term. The pharmacy technician shall serve a two-year term and may be re-elected for one additional term.
